

MONDAY REPORT

Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor
April 29, 1991

DIVISION OF SPEECH AND FINE ARTS SCHEDULE FOR MAY 1991

May 1-15: SHELTON STATE STUDENT ART EXHIBIT

Skyland Campus Library Free Admission
SSCC student works, mixed media
8 a.m. - 10 p.m. M-TH; 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. Fri.

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series Campus Newspaper
File: EG 1-12-5
Date: 9-29-95

May 6: Monday Concert Series

SSCC Music Room Free Admission
Music Department presents Tammy Walker, Miss Tuscaloosa 1991, and Dana Sanford, Miss Shelton State, 1990. 1 p.m.

May 13: Monday Concert Series

SSCC Music Room Free Admission
Ballet demonstration, Students of SSCC Dance Department, Ms. Louise Crofton, Instructor and Registered Teacher, Royal Academy of Dancing. 1 p.m.

May 16: OKLAHOMA!

SSCC Auditorium, Skyland Campus, Two Performances. Presented by the Shelton State Music Department under the direction of Glinda Blackshear.

Dinner Theatre Performance, Thursday, May 16
Ticket Prices: $25 Patron Dinner Theatre
$10 Dinner Theatre
Time: 7:00 p.m.

Second Performance of OKLAHOMA, Friday, May 17
Performance ONLY, No Dinner
Ticket Prices: $5 Adults
$3 Children, students, or seniors
Time: 7:30 p.m.

May 17: "Friday In the Park" sponsored by the Tuscaloosa County Preservation Society, Capitol Park. Free Admission. Featuring SSCC Brass Ensemble. Bring your own picnic, blanket, lawn chairs. Time: 11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

May 18: Dance Display

SSCC Auditorium, Skyland Campus
Students of SSCC Dance Department. Ms. Louise Crofton, Instructor
Registered Teacher, Royal Academy of Dancing.
Time: 2:00 p.m. Free Admission

May 19: Readings from Shakespeare. SSCC Gym. Presented by the SSCC Readers Theatre
Time: 3:00 p.m. Free Admission

May 20: Monday Concert: SSCC Music Room. Discussion: Careers in Music
Time: 1:00 p.m. Free Admission

May 21: "The Shawl" and "The Author's Voice". SSCC Auditorium. Two One-Act Plays by the Advanced Acting class, directed by Melissa Christian, Instructor.
Time: 8:00 p.m. Free Admission

SENIOR ADULT STUDENT TO PERFORM AT SHELTON STATE

A member of Shelton's Senior Adult Studies program will be featured as part of Shelton State's spring Monday Concert Series. Ethel Minsloff will perform Monday, April 29, at 1 p.m. in the music room on the college's Skyland Boulevard Campus.

Mrs. Minsloff, who is the grandmother of six children, is currently working on an Associate in Science Degree in music with a concentration in voice and piano. At Shelton she is a voice student of Joanne Uniatowski. Although involved with musical organizations through the years, most of Mrs. Minsloff's formal education has been in health related fields. She received her Associate Degree in nursing from Meridian Community College in Mississippi, her Bachelor of Science Degree in child development from the University of Wisconsin, and her Master of Science Degree in psychiatric nursing from the Medical College of Georgia.

She practiced nursing in Mississippi and at Bryce Hospital in Tuscaloosa and taught psychiatric nursing at Livingston University in Livingston, Alabama. Mrs. Minsloff is currently a member of the Tuscaloosa Community Singers and the Canterbury Episcopal Church Choir. Some of the works Mrs. Minsloff will perform during the concert include compositions by Handel, Schubert, and Benjamin Britten.

The Monday Concert Series is free and open to the public.

TWO MISS ALABAMA PAGEANT PARTICIPANTS PERFORM AS PART OF SHELTON'S MONDAY CONCERT SERIES

Two students who have participated in the Miss Alabama Pageant will entertain audiences with their talent and their experiences with the pageant as part of Shelton State Community College's Monday Concert Series. The program, which will be held on Monday, May 6, at 1 p.m. in the music room on the college's Skyland Boulevard Campus, is free and open to the public.

The concert will feature the 1990 Miss Shelton State, Dana Sanford, and the reigning Miss Tuscaloosa County, Tammy Walker.

Dana Sanford won the title of Miss Shelton State last year and competed for the title of Miss Alabama in Birmingham this past June. While at Shelton State, she was a member of the Shelton Singers and sang the lead in several productions that were sponsored by the college's music department. Ms. Sanford attended the college on a Performing Arts Scholarship. She is currently attending the University of Alabama where she is majoring in early childhood education. She is employed at Open Door Baptist church day care center.

Tammy Walker, Miss Tuscaloosa County, also attends Shelton State and is majoring in elementary education. While at the college, she has been named to the Dean's List and was recently selected for Who's Who Among American Junior College Students. She will also transfer to the University in the fall where she will specialize in teaching emotionally disturbed children. Ms. Walker is employed by the law firm of Hubbard and Waldrop P.C.

REGISTRATION FOR SUMMER QUARTER IS JUNE 10. CLASSES BEGIN JUNE 11.

FRIDAY: MAY 17-FIFTEENTH STREET CURRENTLY ENROLLED STUDENTS

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY: MAY 22-23 ALL CURRENTLY ENROLLED STUDENTS

SHELTON PERSONNEL NOMINATED FOR CHANCELLOR'S AWARD

Four faculty and staff members from Shelton State Community College have been nominated for the Chancellor's Awards, annual awards given by the Alabama Dean's Students Association for two year colleges, in order to reward and recognize the highest standards of professional excellence. A committee from outside the state will select the award recipients from outstanding faculty and staff members nominated from the junior, technical and community colleges in Alabama.

Nominated from Shelton State are: Ann Capel, curriculum, specialist, Administrator of the Year; Kim Inman, nursing instructor, Technical Instructor of the Year, Margaret Hinton, a secretary to the president, Support Staff Person of the Year. Lon Alexander, an instructor of history for the college who passed away this year, was named Shelton's Junior College Faculty Member of the Year. His wife, Katherine Alexander, will accept the award for him.

A plaque will be presented to all Chancellor's Awards nominees on Wednesday evening, May 23, during the Sixth Annual Celebration of Student Success and Professional Excellence scheduled to be held in Montgomery. Each recipient chosen for a Chancellor's award will also receive a $1,000 professional development stipend in the name of the employing college to be used by the recipient for any professional development activity of choice as approved by the president of the college.